

Job Title: Stakeholder & Fundraising Manager

Location: London N14 4PS

Oak Hill College serves the church of Jesus Christ by preparing men and women for a lifetime of ministry and mission leadership in Britain and around the world. Oak Hill provides full-time and part-time theological training, in a learning and worshipping community which includes almost equal numbers of Independent and Anglican students.

We are looking for a Stakeholder and Fundraising Manager who will help build a targeted and focused approach to the college's stakeholder engagement. The aim is to grow and secure support for the college and its mission through churches sending more people for training and supporting it financially. This means the role will also develop a focus on fundraising management. The manager will be part of a new integrated function, comprising Marketing, Communication, Student Recruitment, Stakeholder Management and Fundraising and the first task for the postholder will be a data strengthening project in preparation for a new CRM system.

The person appointed must have experience in Stakeholder Engagement and Management, Customer Relationship Management, have a fundraising background and/or an excellent working knowledge of fundraising management processes. They will also have the necessary skills to build and manage the required data as part of a team.

There is an Occupational Requirement that the post-holder is a Christian. The Equality Act 2010 applies. The postholder will be in agreement with the theological position, aims and objectives of the College.
